Tomorrow is patriotic night in Glendale and the members of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., and all other Grand Army members and old soldiers will be special guests at the band concert. Rev. C. R. Norton, chaplain of N. P. Banks Post, chaplain of the Southern California Veterans' Association and chaplain of the G. A. R., department of California and Nevada, will give an address.

The following program has been arranged:

..... ..... ..... Rossini

..... ..... ..... Buccalosi
Address, Rev. C. R. Norton
Waltz, "Flower of Italy" Stephano

..... ..... Theo Bendix
"Star Spangled Banner"

Ice drinks will be sold for the benefit of the Red Cross. A number of boys are wanted to volunteer their services in helping to serve the crowd. Boys assisting in this way will have their thirst quenched free of charge.

LA CHACOTA CLUB.

The La Chacota Thimble Club were the guests of Mrs. A. D. McCoy, 127 East Third street, Thursday afternoon. The beautiful home was very attractive in white and green. The afternoon was devoted to fancy work and sewing for the Red Cross work.

Plans were formulated for devoting more time to the Red Cross work and the club will meet with Mrs. B. H. Nichols, 223 South Adams, for the month of July. Their plans include sewing each week, if possible, for this great work, and they will also sew at the Third street school Thursday.

Delicious refreshments of fruit salad, cake and lemonade were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Alice McCoy.

Those present were Mrs. A. P. Knight, Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mrs. B. H. Nichols, Mrs. N. G. Squier, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Mrs. W. H. Watson, Mrs. Frances Nichols, Mrs. D. E. Mallett, Mrs. A. D. McCoy, Miss Fielding and Miss Alice McCoy.

One of the interesting features of the afternoon afforded the guests were the interesting curios which Mrs. McCoy brought from her recent trip to Honolulu.

GREAT PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

An international patriotic service will be held at the First Methodist Church on Sunday evening, July 1. In the midst of vast world movements men must place new valuations on many things, and one of these is patriotism. According to President Wilson patriotism spells not only love of country, but love of ideals. Democracy is the right of humanity.

"America, the Land of Destiny," will be the subject for Mr. Snudden's sermon on Sunday evening.

The fife and drum corps from the Soldiers' Home will take part in the service and will play some of the airs that thrilled the Union Army during the Civil War. To hear these men is a rare privilege. The old soldiers are rapidly passing to the "last camping ground." Soon the sound of their fife and drum will be forever stilled.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower will sing the Welsh national hymn. As a singer he needs no introduction to a Glendale audience.

It is also expected that some Scottish pipers will assist in the service. The choir of the church will render special and appropriate numbers. This large choir is well known for its effectiveness.

Who is the patriot? What is a coward? What is a slacker? These and multitudes of questions force themselves upon men today. It is fitting that men should assemble in God's house and, in the spirit of President Wilson, seek a large vision of duty and service. There must be international patriotism if there is to be a United States of the world.

The N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., the Woman's Relief Corps and members of the Coast Artillery will be present Sunday night.

R. R. COMMISSION HEARING.

W. J. Bohon, general manager of the Glendale & Montrose Railway, returned today from San Francisco where he has been attending the hearing before the Railroad Commission of California, relative to the 15 per cent. increase in freight rates.

BRILLIANT PARTY

MRS. BEAMON ENTERTAINS THE EASTERN STAR AND OUT-OF-TOWN NOTABLES.

The Masonic Temple was the scene of a most brilliant affair last night when Mrs. Beamon, worthy matron of Glen Eyrie Chapter, O. E. S., entertained the members of her chapter and out-of-town notables. Mrs. Beamon planned this delightful party as a recognition of the loyal support of her members who so graciously and willingly performed the duties devolving upon them and thus contributed largely to the success of the year.

The temple, which lends itself so beautifully to such occasions, was most artistically decorated. The entrance hall, where Mr. and Mrs. Beamon received their guests, Mrs. Beamon gowned in a beautiful evening gown of black, was in yellow, the parlors in red dahlias and baby breath.

The beautiful banquet room, where an elaborate supper was served later in the evening, was a vision of loveliness, with the patriotic motif, illustrating as it did the high patriotic spirit of the hostess, was decorated with large flags and an unique arrangement of blossoms, a combination of red gladiolus, blue Jerusalem artichokes and white oleanders.

Ensconced in the windows were tall vases of pink gladiolus. The tables lovely in green and white, carrying out the patriotic idea, being arranged in the form of the Red Cross, were centered by a large white basket of matilija poppies. Each arm of the cross tables adorned with vases of double white hollyhocks, and white carnations, all enhanced with trailing plumosis. Tables placed diagonally across the corners of the room further provided for the large number of guests. The table cloths were bordered with shields and the place cards were surmounted by hand painted stars, emblem of the order.

Gov. Stephens was one of the invited guests but was unable to be present as he was in Redlands last night. Two hundred invitations were issued.

The guests seated at honor table were Grand Worthy Patron of the Grand Chapter, O. E. S., of California, Dr. W. Frank Holman and Mrs. Holman, present matron of Pacific Chapter, O. E. S., Los Angeles; Mrs. Nellie Dean Graham, associate grand matron, Grand Chapter, O. E. S., of California; Mr. C. Von Graham, the past matrons and patrons of Glen Eyrie and the valley and Dr. Jessie A. Russell, State president of California Congress of Mothers.

An interesting interruption while the guests were seated at the table was the presentation and following tribute by Miss Cora Hickman, past deputy matron, and also the first worthy matron of Glen Eyrie.

Mrs. Lilian Rae Beamon, Our Beloved Worthy Matron:

Once again are we the recipients of your and your husband's, our past worthy patron's, generous hospitality; once again are our hearts filled with gratitude and our lips would utter the thanks that fills our hearts. We all realize that yours is a very busy as well as a very useful and happy life; one that is replete with many acts of loving kindness towards all alike; for with you, Sister Lilian, there is no dividing line; all are greeted on the same plane and accorded the same sweet graciousness.

We, your friends, your sisters and brothers, extend to you our sincere thanks and appreciation for this felicitious entertainment and charming occasion. Too often we wait until our friends have gone to that bourne, "from whence no traveler ever returns," ere we give the roses that we withheld, so negligently or thoughtlessly, while they were with us to enjoy their beauty and fragrance. We are slow to manifest our gratitude and appreciation; too often we place the blossoms over folded hands that cannot reach forth to receive them, when but one little blossom given while that one was here to enjoy with the material senses, would have smoothed life's pathway so very much. So tonight, Lilian Rae, we are going to endeavor to gather a nosegay, that in a measure but feebly portrays our appreciation for one of the best and most loyal matrons that Glen Eyrie has ever had.

With memory we will search through the gardens and pluck therefrom those blossoms that represent so beautifully the many and varied attributes of a dear and gracious woman, whom we delight to call our matron, our sister and our friend. Into the garden of gratitude with memory we enter and there we

WOULD SAVE BEER AND WINE

PRESIDENT THROWS INFLUENCE INTO SENATE FIGHT TO PREVENT DRASTIC PROHIBITION LEGISLATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 29.—President Wilson is throwing his influence into the Senate fight to save beer and wine. He is very much concerned at the consequences of jamming through at this time, drastic prohibition measures which constitute, he believes, a blow at personal liberty. He is trying to force an amendment providing that the manufacture of distilled liquors, alone shall be stopped. The position of the president is reliably stated to be: That a peremptory act of Congress stopping the manufacture of all intoxicants would create an unrest in business generally, a situation harmful to the best interests of the country. In addition the question of emergency revenue has entered into the problem.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

CITIZENS DISCUSS THE ADVISABILITY OF APPROPRIATING 2000 FOR BAND.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the City Hall, Thursday evening, June 28, 1917. Present: J. S. Thompson, president of the board, and Trustees Charles Grist, R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman, G. B. Woodberry. Also present: J. C. Sherer, City Clerk; T. W. Watson, City Manager; W. E. Evans, City Attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager Public Service Department; G. H. Herald, city marshal; A. H. Lankford, fire marshal.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and corrections ordered to be made on Page 677, eliminating reference to the City Attorney in the resolution offered on motion of Trustee Jackson, and in the same resolution making the addition of the four words "and other domestic users." With these corrections, the minutes were approved.

The hearing of protests against lot cleaning, Resolution No. 950, was called at this time, and there being none, the resolution was confirmed, upon motion of Trustee Woodberry, and its provisions ordered to be put into effect.

A communication was read from the Colton Chamber of Commerce, inviting the attendance of the board of trustees and the citizens of Glendale in general at the San Bernardino Valley flag raising event, to be held in Colton on July 4. On motion of Trustee Jackson, the communication was received and ordered to be filed and the invitation accepted on the part of such members of the board as would find it convenient to be present.

An application was read from Mrs. Harriet Fox Frank for the installation of a fire hydrant at or near the junction of Eagle Rock road and Broadway. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the application was referred to the manager of the Public Service Department for investigation and report.

An application for permit to sell milk was presented from Inez N. Holcomb, which having the approval of the Milk Inspector, was, on motion of Trustee Woodberry, granted.

A communication was read from Ezra F. Parker expressing his disapproval of the appropriation of $2000 requested for the band. On motion of Trustee Jackson, the same was ordered to be received and filed.

At this time an opportunity was given for those present to be heard upon the petition filed at the last regular meeting of the board, signed by numerous business men and concerns of the city, asking that the board make a provision in its next tax levy for the appropriation of $2000 for supporting the municipal band

Dr. Harrower addressed the board in favor of the appropriation, as did also Mr. Stephen C. Packer. Mr. J. C. Beldin spoke in opposition to the proposition, stating that he had interviewed a number of those who had signed the petition, many of whom had disclaimed their sympathy with it, although they acknowledged having attached their signatures to the same. Mr. C. L. Chandler spoke in favor of the appropriation, stating that he represented that numerous class of citizens who sleep in Glendale and do business in Los Angeles, and who particularly appreciate the band concerts as affording means for the citizens to get together. Mr. Hicks, as representative of the band, made a statement in regard to his work in securing the signatures. Mr. J. E. Jeter, who represented that portion of the laboring class of the city who are endeavoring to pay for their homes, stated that they are opposed to the addition of even the small unnecessary sum to their tax bills. Mr. W. A. Anderson expressed the belief that the money asked for could better be devoted to some other purpose for which there is a greater need. Mr. J. F. Chandler and Mr. J. A. Cole both addressed the board in opposition to the appropriation. Mr. A. T. Cowan spoke in appreciation of the work of the band.

The chairman of the board thanked the citizens present for their appearance at the meeting and their expressions of opinion; no action taken.

A lot cleaning resolution prepared by the City Manager was presented.

On motion, Resolution No. 953, "A resolution of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale ordering the City Manager and ex-officio street superintendent to abate certain nuisances in the city of Glendale," was taken up for reading. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the same upon being read, was adopted.

On motion, Resolution No. 954, "A resolution of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale declaring weeds growing upon and in front of certain lots in said city to be a public nuisance," was taken up for reading.

sidewalk in front of the fire house

On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the same upon being read was adopted.

A motion by Trustee Grist was adopted, that when the board adjourn, it be to meet at 7:30 p.m. July 2 next.

The City Attorney stated in reference to a demand filed by Mrs. Priscilla Houdyshel for damages for injuries sustained by a fall upon the on April 8 last, that he was not prepared to advise the board that the city had any responsibility in the matter, but that the trustees might properly use their discretion in paying or rejecting the demand. On motion of Trustee Grist, the matter was referred to the City Attorney for a written opinion to be furnished at the next meeting.

The manager of the Public Service Department stated that he did not consider it advisable to absent himself on a two-weeks' vacation from the city, but desired permission to be absent for an equal number of days, to be taken in short installments. On motion of Trustee Grist, the request of the manager of the Public Service Department to absent himself from the city as above suggested, was granted.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the City Clerk was authorized to secure the Western Union clock service, if possible, at a cost not to exceed $1 per month.

RED CROSS GARMENTS

MRS. EVANS PLANS DISPLAY OF COMPLETED WORK AT THE INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL.

Since the first of May the Hospital Garment and Supply Committee of the Glendale branch American Red Cross has met every Thursday at the Christian Church. Many workers have been present at every meeting and many who could not be present at every meeting have taken work home.

Different clubs, organizations and units have been doing home work under the direction of the chairman of the hospital garments.

The departments of knitting and ambulance pillows are ably handled by sub-chairmen and they too have been faithfully and quietly doing their bit.

But though from May 1 to July 1 is only two months, it would be quite surprising to see the amount of finished work on hand, especially when it is taken into consideration that only three sewing machines have been at the workers' disposal and no other equipment whatever.

Feeling that there is such widespread interest in the actual work of the Red Cross committees in Glendale the Hospital Garment Committee has decided on a big patriotic display of all finished work to be held in the sewing room of the intermediate school on Thursday, July 5, from 3 to 5 p.m.

As this room will be the future headquarters of the hospital garments and supplies it is planned to make the first day in the new home a real house warming.

There will be much to be seen and learned from the display of finished work. There will be orangeade served free to all visitors, and there will be decorations of flags in keeping with the day after the Fourth of July.

Ladies in Red Cross arm bands and children in the same decorations will meet the public and serve them to iced punch.

Please remember the date, Thursday, July 5, and the time, from 3 to 5, and come out and see what your home town is doing and get the habit of going to the sewing rooms on Thursdays.

MRS. W. E. EVANS,
Chairman Hospital Garments and Supplies.

SALE OF PROPERTY FOR TAXES.

The sale of property in the city of Glendale for delinquent taxes took place yesterday at the Tax Collector's office. The number of pieces sold was 300, representing a delinquency of 2607.44. The delinquent list was published three times in The Tri-City Progress. Property owners who have not paid their taxes should look the matter up, as 10 per cent. is immediately added to the amount and 10 per cent. thereafter every six months in addition to interest at 7 per cent. Five years from date of sale is allowed for redemption.

DR. RUSSELL HONORED.

An elaborate reception in honor of Dr. Jessie A. Russell, State superintendent of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations was held yesterday in the rose room, Hotel Alexandria, from 2 to 5, the Los Angeles district being hostess.

A musical program was given during the reception by the Manual Arts High School Orchestra, and special musical numbers by Hawiian players.

Mrs. N. A. Gallentine, district president, presided during the program, which included short talks by Dr. Albert M. Shiels, superintendent Los Angeles city schools, and Dr. Russell.

Those in the receiving line included Mrs. Gallentine, Dr. Russell, Mrs. L. P. Boyce, State recording secretary, and the fourteen federation presidents of the county. Several hundred women called during the afternoon, including representatives from Bakersfield, San Bernardino, Redlands, Riverside, and from all points in Los Angeles county.

AFTER THE WAR.

When the foolish war is ended and the sword is laid aside, and the fallen men are blended with the soil on which they died, will the nations be as daring as they were before the scrap, will they hunt for trouble caring for the outcome not a rap? Will the monarchs and the colonels, having seen that war's a frost, having summed up in their journals what the crazy fighting cost—will they milder be or bolder, will they still be out for gore, with a chip on every shoulder and a bulldog by the door? Well, methinks they will be willing, being sick of blood and tears, to postpone all further killing for at least a hundred years. For they'll all be so disgusted and so weary and so sore, and their bank accounts so busted they'll consider war a bore. But some men are greatly worried, lest they sail across the seas, and whip us, who've ne'er been curried 'twixt the fetlocks and the knees. They will have enough of fighting when their wretched scrap is o'er; there's no reason, at this writing, why we need to walk the floor.—Walt Mason.

Jones (to Brown, who has been relating his wonderful adventures in Russia.)—"I suppose you visited the great steppes of Russia?"

FAVORS COMMUNITY SINGING.

The suggestion has been made by an old music lover of Glendale that there should be community singing at the band concerts, Saturday night, the unison singing of both patriotic and folk songs. If a committee could be appointed to confer with Bandmaster Hicks and selections made and published beforehand in The Glendale Evening News, the audience could bring their books or the words and join in this singing. This practice will no doubt prove popular. Dr. Harrower was suggested as a leader.

ANSWER TO MARKHAM'S "MAN WITH A HOE."

By WALT LE NOIR CHURCH.

When I met Edwin Markham at a reception given by Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox in New York about 1901 my first words to the great poet were: "Where do you suppose I first read your "Man with a Hoe?"

That gained his favorable attention, and we had quite a talk about that wonderful word picture to which the San Francisco Examiner had given a whole decorated page in 1898, perhaps. Living at Skagway, I was down at Juno, attending some fiesta to which Skagway people were invited. Sunday afternoon a ship from San Francisco arrived, bringing newspapers of the previous Sunday. A friend had brought the Examiner and gave me the sheet containing the poem which had at once placed the little known Edwin Markham in the front rank of modern poets.

Fascinated by its beauty I was depressed by its pessimism. Knowing something of the artist and his paintings, also of his cheerful, hopeful disposition, as shown in his published letters, I thought that Mr. Markham's pen picture of the "Man with the Hoe" was not the one the artist had in mind.

To be certain I read the artist's letter again and found one devoted to the "Man with a Hoe" and so satisfied myself on the subject. Then I wrote the following verses which were first published in a Skagway paper and republished from time to time by different periodicals in the East.

This copy was taken from the Boston Transcript June 10, 1899. while the writer was still in Alaska.

"MAN WITH A HOE."
(With apologies to Edwin Markham)

"God's in His heaven—All's right with the world."—Robert Browning.

Up through the mist of eons he has come
To cast the burdens of a grovelling past
From shoulders that yet more must stoop and strive.
His savage jaw, that feasted on his kind,
Content at last to eat the fruits of earth—
Sowed, reaped and garnered by his willing hand.
At rest, he leans upon his clumsy hoe,
Ill-formed, but better than his father knew;
The master of his ancient "brother ox,"
The sire of seer and poet yet to be.

The Lord has touched him with creative thought,
For lo! his year of jubilee has come!
And stars that held him under dreary thrall
Now sing the paean of his liberty.
Faint echoes from that music of the spheres
Fall on his sleeping ear and whisper, "Hope."
And dreams of dreams begin to wake his soul,
And reason's light is dawning in his face.
With his low forehead slanting up waits and prays.
And turning east, he works and to God,

O masters, present rulers of all lands,
Scorn not thy younger brother of the soil,
But make the pathway easy, for your sake,
To this brave toiler—whose free sons shall be
The sometime monarchs of the Kings of Men.
In that great drama on the stage of life,
Where players play all noble parts in turn,
Till each shall somewhere, in some age, fulfill
The wondrous destiny of toiling man,
And all be garnered back to Him-Who-Is.

WALTER CHURCH.

HEAVY MELON SHIPMENTS.

The record of cantaloupe shipments for Imperial Valley was broken last Friday, when 245 cars of cantaloupes were shipped from Brawley, Calexico, Heber, Meloland and Calipatria, says the Imperial Valley Press. Six long trains bearing breakfasts for 3,000,000 people rolled out of the valley, most of the melons going East. At the United States Office of Markets, in the Bungalow Hotel, Brawley, it was stated that the market was still in good condition for the receipt of the product, and that the easterners have been well pleased with the cantaloupes thus far. Six cars of watermelons were also sent out.

During the Los Angeles District Convention at Santa Monica a chairman related the following as an actual occurrence.

A class of foreigners was being instructed in the English language and the teacher, evidently a routine teacher, with no sense of humor, was having a class of bearded men recite in unison, "I am a woman, I am not a girl." It was evident that they had no conception of what they were repeating or they might have rebelled.

It is related that in Chicago a young Russian was attending night school in his endeavor to acquire an English vocabulary and the teacher, a very practical man, wrote on the blackboard "I take off my shoes." "I put on my coat," and while repeating these sentences the men were required to perform these actions.

The young Russian, wishing after his return home to impress his family, threw off his coat and triumphantly shouted "I take off my shoes." He was evidently a little mixed but had the right idea.

BRILLIANT PARTY.

gather armfuls of the sweet blue-eyed violets; the modest little flower that is emblematic of fidelity, for of this virtue, Lilian, you are especially endowed, true to friends, and kindred alike, and faithful to all morai obligations. The perfume still lingers of the modest violet, when memory directs us into the garden of honor and justice, when lo, the fragrance of the pretty yellow jasmine is wafted to us, and constancy is also added to our nosegay in the symbolic yellow jasmine.

A wondrous garden flooded in a glorious light, which fills our hearts with joy, we next enter, but there we pause, for lillies rare and beautiful meet and greet us everywhere. Each stately head nods a welcome which seems to say "Gather us for your matron, for her, who is looking for only the good and pure in her sisters, brothers and friends."

Into a dell where ferns grow we follow memory and there we add to our well laden arms of bright hued flowers the graceful fern, which is so symbolical of hope, one of your many ennobling virtues.

We remember with gratefulness and love of the many sickrooms where hope has remained with the suffering patient and weary watcher, through the fern that has found its way there, sent by our matron.

Over in the garden of truth many roses, beautiful red roses, we find blooming for you, all aglow with that fervency which should actuate all who are engaged in the services of truth. Then as we look beyond memory beckons that we have added the crowning virtue to your altogether fragrant nosegay, love. For does not the red rose breathe a message of love? And your heart is filled with love for all mankind.

Memory then gently binds together the flowers with the golden bonds of faith, hope and charity, "and now abideth faith, hope and charity, but the greatest of these is charity."

To you, my dear matron and friend, we bring this nosegay, breathing a fragrance that bespeaks for you our love and appreciation for all that you mean to us. And now

"Let fate do her worst, there are relics of joy,
Bright dreams of the past that she cannot destroy,
That come in the night time of sorrow and care,
And bring back the features that joy used to wear.
Long, long may your heart with such memories be filled
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled.
You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will,
But the scent of the roses will cling 'round it still."

Cards and two very interesting games, "The Medieval Trunk" and flower conundrums, were the entertainment offered.

The score cards were beautifully hand painted in the form of the emblematic star, adorned with camels and the star of the order.

The first prize for men, a stein, decorated with Masonic emblems, was won by Mr. D. H. Smith; the booby, a small camel, was won by C. Von Graham. Mrs. C. W. Kimberly was the winner of the ladies' first prize, a beautiful sugar and creamer of ivory, inlaid with gold. The booby prize, a Red Cross Rosie, was won by Mrs. Alice M. Carvel. A lovely vase was won by Dr. Anna Jocelyn in the games.

In planning this delightful party Mrs. Beamon did not neglect the patriotic duty she has assumed as chairman of the Red Cross comfort bags, as was evidenced by the beautiful comfort bag which hung at the door of the reception room. This bag was an exact replica of the comfort bag of the camp except in material. This bag was of white satin with the Red Cross insignia upon it and held the contributions solicited by Mrs. Beamon. These amounted to $10.25.

The Monte Vista Valley Band has been reorganized and is known now as Maygrove's Monte Vista Valley Band. The band as organized three years ago improved wonderfully until a few michief makers who through jealousy, envy or pure meanness started to break up the harmony among the members. In the musical world these kind of people known as "Band Skunks." Mr. R. often crop up and are commonly Walter Maygrove has assumed full control of the band and promises the community an efficient musical organization in the very near future. A beginners' class is now commencing and all lovers of music are invited to join. The terms are low, the opportunity great.
